

Join Our Team- Become a Visitor Centre Volunteer!

Are you passionate about sharing knowledge, connecting with people, and making a positive impact on your community? Why not join Sea Trust as a Visitor Centre Volunteer.

About us

Sea Trust Wales is a registered charity working to better understand and protect local marine wildlife and raise awareness within the local community, through our research, our Sea Môr aquarium and community events. Our Ocean Lab base serves as a gateway to the breathtaking natural wonders of our marine environment. With sea views on the doorstep, our centre plays a vital role in educating and inspiring visitors of all ages. But we can't do it without your help!

Why volunteer with us?

- Make a difference: As a volunteer, you'll play a key role in enhancing the visitor experience. Your warm welcome and valuable insights will leave a lasting impression on our guests.
- Connect with nature: You'll have the chance to learn fascinating facts about our marine wildlife and come face to face with it in our aquarium, deepening your connection with the environment.
- Build new skills: Whether you're looking to improve your communication, teamwork, or leadership skills, volunteering with us will provide valuable opportunities for personal and professional growth.
- Create memories: The smiles you'll help create and the memories you'll make with fellow volunteers will be cherished forever.
- Be part of a community: Join a passionate community of individuals who share your enthusiasm for nature, education and creating a positive impact.

What you'll do

- Welcome & assist visitors, answering their questions and providing information about the Ocean Lab
- Booking visitors onto tours, seashore safaris and the VR experience and directing them to their activity
- Assist in operating the gift shop, including showcasing merchandise and processing sales and maintaining a tidy and inviting shopping environment
- Contribute to maintaining the Ocean Labs displays and exhibits
- Collaborate with the team to come up with new ideas to improve visitor experiences
